FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FREESTAR FINANCIAL CREDIT UNION BOARD CHAIR, RAYMOND WHITE JR., RECEIVES TOP HONORS

Clinton Township, MI, - We are pleased to announce that Raymond White Jr., Board Chair of FreeStar Financial Credit Union, has recently been recognized twice for his exemplary service and dedicated volunteerism at both the local and state levels.

Antoinette Wallace, Board Commissioner for District 8, presented Raymond with the district's 2023 Outstanding Volunteer Award at this year's Volunteer of the Year Honoree Dinner. This award is testament to his years of service and his unwavering commitment to our credit union and the community.

In addition, Raymond was also honored with the first-ever, Board Member of the Year award at the 2023 Annual Convention & Exposition's awards gala. This award was presented by Patty Corkery, President and CEO of the Michigan Credit Union League (MCUL), and celebrates a board member's dedication, enthusiasm, and significant contributions to the credit union.

"Raymond's tireless dedication, both to our institution and the financial industry, coupled with his steadfast advocacy for veterans and volunteers, is what sets him apart," said Drema Isaac, President/CEO of FreeStar Financial Credit Union. "His dynamic leadership over the past 30 years continues to inspire our team and propel FreeStar Financial's growth."

FreeStar Financial, proudly celebrates Raymond's much-deserved recognition. His exceptional leadership and dedication truly embody the spirit of credit unions and sets the bar for community service. FreeStar Financial is proud of Raymond and thankful for his continued commitment and leadership for the credit union.
